Scarlet fever has again broke out in the family of George S. Taylor. A younger daughter has now taken down with the dreadful contagion. It is feared some negligence has been indulged in and that it may yet spread to the neighbors. The place should be governed by quarantine regulations.

Charles Campbell, lately committed to the insane asylum, died at that place yesterday, of paralysis. It will be remembered that Campbell was found some time ago in an unconscious condition in Cedar valley. Since his committal he has steadily gone down and Thursday passed away. His wife was down to his funeral.

County Republicans.

The Republican county convention for Utah county was called to order at 10:15 this morning by County Chairman John E. Booth, who delivered a sufficiently lengthy address on the past glories (?) of the Republican party.

Wm. M. Bromley of American Fork was named for temporary chairman and Grace Brimhall of Spanish Fork for temporary secretary. A short address was made by the temporary chairman, endorsing the St. Louis platform. On motion of Thorne of Pleasant Grove, one member of several committees on Permanent Organization, Credentials and Resolutions ordered to be named by several delegations. At this time the failure of the reading of the call was mentioned by an discerning delegate and the correction ordered by the chair.

Members of the several committees were then named by each delegation. Recess moved to 1 p. m. to allow the committees time to report.

The afternoon session was called to order at 1:30. The committee on credentials had lost its secretary and with him the report.

On motion of Thomas John the chairman appointed Marshal Knight and Delegate Glazier a committee to find the missing secretary. Peters, before the convention. The marshal showed up in ten minutes with the missing secretary.

Committee on credentials reported everybody present entitled to seats.

Committee on permanent organization recommended for chairman, John E. Booth and for secretary, Miss Grace Brimhall; assistant secretary, James T. Thorne; chaplain, George Bromley; sergeant at arms, W. C. Holdaway.

The permanent officers were ordered to their places.

Prayer was offered by the chaplain. On recommendation of the chair Mrs. Susan Y. Gates, Mrs. Daisy Austin were named as vice-chairmen.

The report of the committee on resolutions and platform endorsing administration of President McKinley, the Salt Lake platform, woman suffrage, low salaries and no deputies, and condemned alleged extravagance.

A minority report was read, signed by Sam M. LeRoy, reaffirming the National platform. Mr. LeRoy spoke in favor of his proposed amendment to the effect that it made no difference whether Republicans were gold bugs or not. He also said they didn't want the support of Democrats or Populists in this county.

The majority report was adopted. S. S. Jones was nominated for State senator by acclamation.

Some process followed with Apollon Benjamin Walker which completed the state ticket.

The convention is wrestling with the representative ticket as we go to press.

STRAWS.

The temporary chairman used his fist for a gavel, but it answered the purpose as well as a club.

Some of the the American Fork delegation objected to the appointment of the city marshal to hunt up one of their members.

The delegates this afternoon exercised their constitutional privilege of taking their time. The reconvening of the convention was therefore slow, which accounts for the limited extent of our report.

You will save a long walk or a ride in an over-crowded street car by going to conference via the Short Line Special. See ad, elsewhere in this paper.

PRECINCT PRIMARY.

DEMOCRATS NOMINATE CANDIDATES FOR PRECINCT OFFICES.

A Strong Ticket Nominated and Perfect Harmony Shown—A Good Precinct Committee.

THE TICKET.

For Justice of the Peace: JACOB A. GATES.

For Constable: WREN WILKINS.

The Democratic primary of Provo precinct was held in the court house last Thursday evening in accordance with the call of Precinct Chairman T. E. Thurman. David Openshaw was elected chairman and Grant C. Bagley secretary. The first business of the primary was declared the selection of nominees for precinct officers which resulted in the choice of the ticket given above.

An argument followed on the number of precincts in Provo and the organization of the precinct committee, which finally resulted in the decision to form a committee of ten members, consisting of the chairmen and vice-chairmen of each municipal ward. T. E. Thurman was made the chairman of the committee, an excellent selection.

Sorenson-Scott Wedding.

One of the most enjoyable wedding receptions that has taken place in the Second ward for some time occurred at the residence of Mrs. Sarah A. Scott Thursday evening. It was in honor of the marriage of Francelle Scott to William W. Sorenson, which took place at the Salt Lake Temple the Tuesday previous.

The affair was attended by about 150 invited guests who spent the evening in songs, recitations and speeches, and lastly open-air dancing. One of the most delicious suppers ever devoured by the human appetites was delicately served by the lady of the house, the strengthening powers of which added to the pleasure of the occasion. The happy pair were the recipients of many costly presents, all of which were very useful, and will serve to make life a pleasure in the culinary and other departments of the household.

The groom is one of Provo's highly respectable young men, but has been residing at Eureka for some time, while the bride is the true specimen of womanhood, she being the youngest daughter of the late Bishop A. H. and Sarah A. Scott. Mr. and Mrs. Sorenson will make their temporary home at Eureka.

Nineteenth Century Club.

The Nineteenth Century club met in regular session at Miss Kellogg's Friday, September 21. Parliamentary drill was conducted by Miss Moore.

Mrs. Searle gave a very interesting talk upon the "Anti-Jewish Sentiment."

News of the week was given by Miss Searle. Prof. W. M. Wolfe, of the B. Y. Academy, will lecture before the club on September 29, at Mrs. Searle's. Club will hold its next regular meeting October 7th, at Mrs. Bonham.
